

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Decision Maker magazine Renews its Support for The November 2026 Elite Summit!

London, 28 July 2026 – Following the May 2026 summit, The Decision Maker reaffirms its commitment to the media support of The November Elite Summit, organised by Marcus Evans.

This is the flagship private wealth forum, of Marcus Evans returning to the Fairmont Le Montreux Palace this November.

The Decision Maker magazine is proud to announce their continuous media support of the Elite Summit 2026, as it returns at the Fairmont Le Montreux Palace in Montreux, Switzerland, from 18 to 20 November 2026. Recognised as one of Europe's most prestigious gatherings for family office professionals and private wealth executives, the summit will once again bring together a carefully curated group of senior investors, chief investment officers, and leading solution providers for three days of substantive dialogue and strategic exchange.

A Forum Built for the Moment

The private wealth landscape is undergoing a period of profound transformation. Shifting macroeconomic conditions, geopolitical realignment, the rise of alternative asset classes, and the growing complexity of multi-generational wealth transfer have placed new demands on family office leadership. The Elite Summit 2026 has been designed to address these challenges head-on, offering a programme that is both intellectually rigorous and practically relevant.

Key topics on the agenda include the redesign of portfolio allocation frameworks in response to persistent inflation and interest rate volatility, the identification of institutional-grade opportunities through direct investments, co-investments, and private credit, the structuring of governance and succession frameworks that endure across generations, and the evaluation of emerging technologies and sectors that represent genuine long-term value rather than speculative trends.

An Invitation-Only Environment

The Elite Summit is deliberately intimate.
